End Human Trafficking Sunday

Today is International Day of Prayer & Awareness Against Human Trafficking. This day focuses on prayer, reflection and action to end exploitation, coordinated by Talitha Kum based in Rome as an international, Catholic-based network of consecrated religious sisters dedicated to fighting human trafficking and exploitation through prevention, victim support, and advocacy. It was first observed in 2015.

Each year we remember that around 2.5 million people are victims of trafficking and slavery. For those engaged in trafficking it has become one of the most lucrative illegal activities in the world.

Through this Day of Prayer, we not only reflect on the experience of those who have suffered, but also we are called to reach out to victims and survivors.
